Stationery and Printing.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

May 30, 1849.

EPARATE PROPOSALS for furnishing the stationery, and for executing the printing of this Department, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1850, will be received until 3 o'clock p. m., on the 29th day of June next. Those unaccompanied by satisfactory testimonials of ability to fulfil a contract will not be considered.

All the articles of stationers.

BINDING.

NAVY DEFARTMENT, May 28, 1849.

SEPARATE SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the Office of the Secretary of the Navy, until 3 o'clock, p. m., the 28th day of June next, for furnishing all the Stationery and executing all the Printing and Binding that may be required by the Navy Department and its several Bureaus for the year commencing the 1st of July, 1849, and ending on the 30th June, 1850.

All the articles furnished, and work executed, must be of the best quality, delivered without delay when ordered, and to the satisfaction of the head of the office for which they are required. If it be required, each bidder for stationery must furnish with his proposal a sample of each article bid for.

To ensure uniformity in the proposals, blank forms will be furnished to those disposed to bid; and no bid will be considered not fully conforming to the advertisement, and in which each and every article is not bid for, and in which more than one price is named for any one article. tract will not be considered.

All the articles of stationery must be of the very best quality—samples of the principal articles of which, such as paper, quills, metallic pens, lead pencils, knives, ink, &c., must accompany the bids, put up in classes as per schedule; and the Department reserves the right to retain such samples, and pay for the same at the prices stated in the offer, or to return them, at its option. No bid will be considered where the articles accompanying it are not of the kind and quality required for the Department.

article is not bid for, and in which more than one price is named for any one article.

Bond, in sufficient amount, with two or more approved sureties for the faithful execution of the contract, will be required of the person or persons contracting. The authorized name or names of the sureties that will be given, as also satisfactory testimonials to fulfil a contract, must accompany the bid, otherwise it will not be considered.

The Department reserves to itself the right of ordering a greater or less quantity of each and every article contracted for, as the public service may require. approved sureties for the faithful execution of the contract, will be required of the person or persons contracting.
